Wedding Budgets

Wouldn't it be nice to have an unlimited budget for your wedding? Let's be real: budgets often guide our decision making for basically.... well, everything in life. And, whether you have a $5,000 budget or $500,000 budget, it's still a budget.

The next page reveals some average price ranges you can expect from Colorado vendors.

Now, we specialize in small intimate wedding packages. If you are interested in receiving a budget guide for planning a wedding of 30 people or less (or and elopement!), please feel free to contact us at www.CustomWeddingsofColorado.com. Our packages start at $3,300 and average around $3,900.

Finally, if there is one thing to remember about wedding budget management, it is important to stay on top of all the expenditures before you start signing contracts!

Average Colorado Wedding Costs

Estimates based on a wedding party with up to 10 attendants (5 on each side) and 100 guests. Actual prices vary greatly dependent on (1) number of guests, (2) extensiveness of service, and (3) quality of goods.

Budgeting for a small intimate wedding or elopement

There are many destinations, lodging types, restaurants and private chefs. All will vary in prices depending on the luxury level, number of bedrooms, location-destination (i.e. ski resorts vs. National Park), and the season.

Colorado's peak seasons are the holidays, ski season (if at a ski-resort area) and summer months (June - September). Off seasons in the mountain areas run April-May and late-October through November. If you are considering a spring or late fall wedding and want to avoid "mud" season in the mountains, then a Denver, Boulder, Foothills or Colorado Springs wedding can offer some unique features and rock formations for backdrops.

Here are some price estimates. If you would like more specific information, we recommend our Getting Started Site Report.
